192/2022 MATTERS ARISING

1. Defra Proposal regarding Farne Islands fishing ban – Update The Chairman was pleased to note that this proposed fishing ban had been cancelled by DEFRA
2. Coronation of Charles III – Parish Celebrations – Discussions took place regarding options for a celebration including the installation of the whale bones, a joint project with the Hub and RNLI, a parish picnic including Slaters funfair rides. It was noted that a meeting had been held at the Chapel regarding the Coronation and this was to be investigated.

Lizzie Moor of the SVG had produced the costings for a plaque which they are proposing to produce to commemorate the coronation. The design will be one of the official coronation designs. They had requested funding of £150 towards this and all agreed to the funding. Discussions followed regarding possible sites for the plaque in perpetuity and The Hub, The Harbour Commissioners and Bob Hodgson, NCC are to be contacted to see if they have a suitable site. Bob Hodgson is also to be asked about the old plaque that was removed. The volunteers also asked if the bunting can be put on the railings that surround the war memorial – meeting agreed.

196/2022 CORRESPONDENCE – None

197/2022 COUNTY COUNCILLORS REPORT – None

198/2022 REPORTS AND COMMENTS – Cllr Donaldson noted that the pot holes on Main St particularly from the co-op towards the Chapel were very bad. It was noted that Cllr Renner-Thompson had reported them last month but the clerk to contact NCC highways again. Cllr Shiel asked if the meeting regarding the path between Beadnell and Seahouses, previously cancelled due to bad weather could be re-arranged, the clerk to contact Graham Bucknall NCC Highways and also remind him about the works needed on Broad Rd near to the Longstone Hotel, and the wall that was damaged on the Harbour Hill top.

Cllr Trotter noted that the wooden bollard outside the Neptune had been damaged. Cllr Shiel noted a "flag" had been sited on the path advertising the Beach Hut and this was very close to the road and could cause an accident, again this is to be reported.

The meeting was informed of the ill health of the retired councillor Stewart and a card is to be sent wishing him a speedy recovery.

Cllr Fordy noted that the fence running alongside his property adjacent to the footpath between James St and Stone Close is not his responsibility and legally belongs to NCC, therefore any complaints about its condition should be directed to NCC.
