

Tribute to the Fallen

The Men of Alnwick, Amble, Rothbury & Wooler Districts 1914-1920

By David Thompson

Wooler parish council has kindly been presented with a copy of the above book by the Western Front Association – Northumberland Branch.

What's it all about?

“The object of the book is to deliver for the reader a clear insight into, and a better understanding of, the background of those local men who laid down their lives in the First World War in the service of their country; their origins; parentage; siblings; education; pre-enlistment occupations; their wives and children; service records; and more.”

“Whether you are tracing a family tree, investigating an aspect of the First World War, or researching the history of Northumberland, you will find this detailed compendium a valuable and fascination resource.”

This excellent book can be viewed by prior arrangement at the following address:

The Farmhouse
Lilburn Hill
Wooler
NE71 6QT

Please either email woolerparishcouncil@yahoo.co.uk or telephone the parish clerk on 07501169591.