

Rothbury House

retirement accommodation

Our purpose-built accommodation in Rothbury, Northumberland, will enable you to retain your privacy and independence while living among like-minded people who share a military connection.

Spend summer days basking in the sun in our beautiful, landscaped gardens, enjoy coffee mornings with our friendly residential community, or walk into the welcoming Rothbury village and explore the local amenities on your doorstep.

However you choose to spend your time, you can do it safe in the knowledge that we have staff on hand 24 hours a day to help support you as and when required.

What's included

- All bills • Staff on hand 24 hours a day • Lift • Meals
- On-site parking • Shared, landscaped garden
- Communal activities, including coffee mornings
